Consent for Release of Records and Consent for Release and/or Exchange of Information

As a parent, you have the right to give permission or not give permission for the release of your child's Early Intervention (EI) records to other persons or agencies who are not part of the EI system. A copy of this form will be released to the agencies or persons when you give permission to release records. If you do not want these agencies or persons to be aware of your permissions for other agencies, please request the use of multiple release of record forms. As a parent, you have access to any part of your child's EI record. An EI record means all records regarding your child that are collected, maintained, or used under the federal law, Part C of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.
