

Do you work to support families with infants?
Do you assist families with Early Intervention referrals?
Join us for this EXCITING training opportunity!

Newborn Behavioral Observation: Incorporating Use of the NBO with Families Living with Substance Use Disorder

The Newborn Behavioral Observation system (NBO) is an infant-focused, family centered relationship-building tool designed to sensitize parents to their baby's competencies, challenges, and individuality. Click here to learn more about the NBO.

Session 1: January 11, January 30, and February 13, 2023

Session 2: February 27, and March 6, and March 15, 2023

Session 3: May 8, May 24, and May 31, 2023

Useful for:

- Case managers
- Nurses
- NICU staff
- Pediatricians
- PT/OT/Speech

Continuing Professional Development Units:

- PT – 14.5 hours
- OT – 15.25
- SW/Speech/ Dev. Specialists – 15.5

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

Or visit: <https://ohioearlyintervention.org/search>